17th March 1955]

Service scheme was introduced to enable the scheme being put on a sound footing. With the experience gained, it was found that the Blocks could be manned by non-gazetted officers of the rank of Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars. When therefore the scheme was extended to ten more blocks in the State (besides the ten in Tanjore district) in October 1954, the Government decided to appoint non-gazetted Block Development Officers of the grade of Tahsildars (Rs. 200—10—300) in these additional blocks. Under the National Extension Service Scheme prepared specially for Tanjore district, the blocks have been placed in charge of Deputy Tahsildars in the scale of Rs. 150—5—200 called Taluk Development Officers working under Tahsildars.
